On behalf of the Board of Directors, I would like to welcome you to Hawaii's first-ever Flute Week and to the inaugural public events of the Hawaii Flute Society!

HFS was founded with the goal of continuing the legacy of my former teacher and Honolulu Symphony Principal Flutist, Jean Harling. Our organization is hard at work bringing together Hawaii's flutists of all ages, experiences and backgrounds while promoting fellowship and teamwork and showcasing aspiring talent. In total, our first Flute Week will include 2 hours of auditions, 5 hours of flute choir rehearsal, a public masterclass and concert, a world premiere performance and over 30 participating local flutists! We are additionally pleased to present these events and activities at low-to-no cost for participants.

This week, we hope to share the diverse sounds of the flute family and repertoire with you. If you would like to see and hear even more flute music, I encourage you to keep in touch with us by email and on social media. I also hope that you will consider supporting the future of HFS by making a donation or pledge.

The Board of Directors of the Hawaii Flute Society wishes you a fun, educational and inspiring Flute Week 2017!

Aloha,

Lynn Muramaru, President

"I love my 24K gold and platinum-clad silver Muramatsu flutes for their large range of color possibilities and dynamics as well as the most up-to-date mechanism and scale. They remind me of two antique, French Louis Lot flutes I once purchased from my teacher, Peter Lloyd."

Susan McGinn, originally from Detroit, studied nearby at the University of Michigan before attending graduate school as a teaching assistant at the University of Illinois and Indiana University. Her first orchestral job was with the Canton, OH Symphony and in 1990 she joined the Honolulu Symphony and Chamber Music Hawaii. She has performed around the world with ensembles such as Grupo Musica Antiqua (Italy) and Orchestra dell'opera di Mascagni (Italy), and at festivals including Schleswig Holstein (Germany), Peter Brit (OR), Skaneateles (NY), Crested Butte (CO), the National Repertory Orchestra, National Orchestral Institute and the LA Phil Institute. Her major teachers were James Pellerite, Clem Barone, Richard Graef, Julius Baker and Peter Lloyd. She has additionally studied Alexander Technique, voice, dance, breathing with Arnold Jacobs, practice techniques with Burton Kaplan and flute with Keith Underwood.

Our Mission

The mission of the Hawaii Flute Society is to continue the legacy of Honolulu Symphony Principal Flutist and educator, Jean Harling, by promoting the appreciation of flute music throughout the State of Hawaii while fostering camaraderie among Hawaii's flutists of all ages and abilities.

The Hawaii Flute Society's programs aim to:

- Nurture the talents of Hawaii's flutists of all ages and abilities through educational programs and ensemble playing.
- Create more performance opportunities for Hawaii's flutists ranging from formal concerts to community outreach at our local community centers, hospitals, care homes and schools.
- Engage the greater Hawaii community while promoting a deeper understanding and appreciation for flute music.

Support the Hawaii Flute Society

Hawaii Flute Society, Inc. is committed to enriching the lives and playing of our local students and adult flutists, and to bringing flute music into our community through public concerts and FluteCare in hospitals and nursing homes.

Donations

Your support today will help us get to our next goal of attaining 501(c)(3) non-profit status. Donations may be retroactively tax-deductible (please see details on the back side of this sheet), and a contribution of $10/month would make a significant difference in the future of the Hawaii Flute Society.

Pledges

If you would prefer to wait until after HFS, Inc. achieves non-profit status, we are also currently accepting donation pledges. Submit your pledge today and we will reach out to you at the appropriate time to facilitate your donation.

Mahalo for supporting the Hawaii Flute Society!
